

LICK OF THE WEEK

Buddy Guy Damn Right I've Got the Blues

This week it's Buddy Guy playing his great blues tune, Damn Right I've Got the Blues which first appeared on his 1991 Silvertone recording of the same name.

The lick is all from the A minor pentatonic scale, with notes primarily from pattern 1, along with some from patterns 2 and 5. It's very simple, and very cool. It is played over the I (A7) chord, in the first 4 bars of the tune, leading up to the IV (D7) chord.

Enjoy.
