

LICK OF THE WEEK

Eric Clapton I'm Tore Down

Today's lick is taken from a cooking performance of the Freddie King classic, I'm Tore Down by Eric Clapton. It's in the video posted this week on the home page of this site.

The lick is from the opening of the guitar solo, and is played in the key of C, using patterns 1, 2 and a bit of 5 of the C pentatonic minor scale, up towards the top of the neck. You can get a pretty good view of how Eric plays it.

Enjoy.
